VIDEO: Governor Baker, Tom Brady Participate in “Saving by Shaving” Event

QUINCY – For the fourth consecutive year, Governor Charlie Baker got a buzz-cut at Granite Telecommunication's annual "Saving By Shaving" event to raise awareness for Dana Farber and to support pancreatic cancer research. He was joined by Secretary of Energy and Environmental Affairs Matthew Beaton, Quincy Mayor Thomas Koch, New England Patriots Quarterback Tom Brady, President of the Boston Red Sox Sam Kennedy, Host of Greater Boston/Boston Public Radio Jim Braude, Host of the Hill-Man Morning Show Greg Hill, Granite CEO Rob Hale and other special guests. At this year's event, Granite Telecommunications announced a $5.8 million contribution raised for the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute.
